

OIN 2.0 Facts at a Glance

Open Invention Network (OIN) was born in 2005 at a time of uncertainty, demanding urgent action, to clear Open Source Software patent risks. To encourage participation, OIN membership was free. To allow a more permanent defense of Open Source as it continues to grow, OIN is changing our business model effective 2026 with OIN 2.0.

STRONG COMMUNITY & MASSIVE CROSS-LICENSE

4,000+ members

(from 157 countries & 20 industries) are committed to our mission, which has not wavered in 20 years.

OIN members generate over $10 trillion dollars (USD) in annual revenue; 1/3 of America's GDP.

Members collectively own 3 million+ patents & applications.

Patent risk clearance is scalable & available by nominating Open Source Software to the Linux System.

20 YEARS EXPERIENCE & DEMONSTRATED PROTECTION

Exclusive Linux System — the world's largest & oldest defensive cross-license — protects 5,100+ core Linux & Open Source technologies against patent risk.

OIN has successfully defended against Non-Practicing Entity & Operating Company antagonists. (87% of NPE patents originate from corporate entities.)

OIN employs various active defensive strategies to combat patent risk.

OPEN SOURCE & PATENT LITIGATION STATS

90% of corporations use Open Source Software

Harvard Business School estimates companies would spend 3.5x the current amount on software if Open Source didn't exist.

Increasing litigation threats can cost companies between $2.3 - $4 million dollars (USD) per instance. (Sources: Copperpod; LegalDive)

OIN PARTICIPATION FEES FUND

Future expansions of Linux System coverage, including emerging Open Source Software technologies.

Recruitment of more participants in the OIN cross-license and a stronger, more resilient Open Source community.

Continued use of OIN's resources to combat patent threats as they arise.
